THE LUG SOLE IS LEAVING THE MOUNTAIN SIDE AND HITTING CITY SIDEWALKS. DESIGNERS ARE USING IT TO TRANSFORM ALREADY SHARP SHOES AND BOOTS INTO ALL-TERRAIN HYBRIDS.

1. Grenson ($440). 2. Church's ($710). 3. O'Keeffe ($740). 4. Belstaff ($750). 5. Bruno Magli ($495). 6. Dries Van Noten ($670). 7. Banana Republic ($228).

THE EXPERT

GETTING THE LUG SOLE

If your favorite shoe lacks a lug, it's not too late. "Clever customers update their shoes with a thick rubber sole," says David Mesquita of New York City's go-to cobbler, Leather Spa. "Guys are asking for this more and more recently." Adding Vibram lug soles costs $80 to $120. They come in various colors, but stick with classic black or brown.
