THE 25 SHOPS WORTH TRAVELING FOR

We're not saying you have to drive to Alabama or fly to Tokyo just because there's an awesome store. But it's not a bad excuse for a trip, is it?

NO. 8 LANVIN N.Y.C.

Three floors of luxe French tailoring, presented with a moody cool that's giving Madison Avenue a swift kick in the gabardines.

NO. 9 A. SAUVAGE LONDON

Custom suits with an Afro-punk twist for downtown dandies like Mos Def, Mark Ronson, and, well, you.

NO. 10 FRIEDRICH'S OPTIK PALM BEACH

Because badass unironic grandpa style also applies to shades.

NO. 11 Designer Steven Alan chooses... OKURA TOKYO

"This shop has a '70s-hippie Japanese-American vibe. Think old house sandals and Native American turquoise jewelry."

NO. 12 SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW BOSTON

One of America's first jewelry stores, which means 217 years of hard-core new- and vintage-watch expertise.

NO. 13

YO, ASAP ROCKY!
WHO'S YOUR
2013 STYLE
INSPIRATION?

"John Lennon in the Yoko Ono years. I like how she helped craft his style."

Some trends refuse to die.
Like camo.

• It's gone from popular to ubiquitous. If you're gonna enlist in the camo army at this point, wear only one piece at a time.

The tote is your backpack-briefcase hybrid.

• Totes are easy to carry and easy to dig through, and nobody will make diaper-bag jokes as long as yours has a leather strap, rugged canvas, and a medium size.
